The International Tuning Academy
Deusto-Groningen
The International Tuning Academy

1- The concept – the need
2- The objectives
3- The actors
4- The style of work
5- The road ahead
6- The initial structure
1- The concept – the need

- to continue a task - a mission
- to maintain the work of thousands of people
- to go beyond the project to implementation
- to give it a focal point
- to support it with a structure
- The concept of the Academy had emerged
2 - The objectives

- To become a centre of excellence and a reference point for HE at global level
- To systematize and disseminate the work of the Tuning Project and design and articulate future developments
- To analyse present trends and anticipate future HE needs in relation to employment and citizenship the development of observatories
2 - The objectives

- To contribute to the analysis and the development of HE policies
- To foster the implementation of competence-based, student-centered learning
- To contribute with research and innovation along the Tuning Lines in a collaborative framework
3 - The Actors

- Tuning Academic experts
- Tuning Senior Researchers
- Tuning Junior Researchers - Students
- Tuning Policy Fellows
- Tuning Associates,
- Coordination
4 - The Style of work

- Collaborative work
- Hands-on academics as key actors
- Along thematic areas
- Theory and implementation
- Sharing good practices
- Based on diversity
- From all over the world
5- The road ahead – short term

- The launching of the project (2010-2011)
- Location - roots
- First development plan
- Incorporation of members
- Groups and thematic areas
- First plan for financial resources
5- The road – medium term (July, 2013)

- Research lines and first projects, thesis & PhD
- Design and implementation of the Academy training experiences
- Design and reconstruction of thematic plans
- Formation of the group of policy fellows
- Selection and design of observatories
- The Tuning Journal
5- The road ahead – long term

- Consolidated research lines & projects.
  Decission on scientific publication line
- Consolidated groups of trainers and experts working on innovation and experimentation
- A number of established observatories for emerging trends education-employment
5- The road ahead – long term

- Consolidated group of CEOs in HE - reflection
- Meeting points for the presentation and debate of new developments in TL
- Line on implementation strategies
- Thematic publications
- Projects in other parts of the world.....
The initial structure

Five Units responsible to carry out the objectives

Unit 1: study, research and innovation

Unit 2: experimentation, training of trainers

Unit 3: policy & analysis, education- employment

Unit 4: implementation, dissemination & projects

Unit 5: organisational development